Festival of Flavor and Fragrance Comes To Town

Mark your calendar for an “extra-sensory” event when the Herb Society of America presents “The Festival of Flavor and Fragrance” on Saturday June 6, 2009 from 1:30 – 4:30 PM. at the Amway Grand Plaza Hotel in Grand Rapids Michigan. Held in conjunction with the Herb Society’s Annual Conference, the festival is open to the public and will have experts from around the country on hand to share knowledge of individual herbs and herbal preparations that will captivate your senses and expand your herbal I.Q. In addition to educational exhibits, herbal vendors will have specialty herb products available for sampling and purchase. Admission at the door is $25. For additional information on the festival and featured experts, please visit www.herbsociety.org or call the Herb Society of America 440-256-0541.
