

The Herb Society of America is pleased to announce the return of Traveling Educational Seminars with Gardens of Tuscany, April 10-18, 2011, exclusively for The Herb Society of America members and friends. In cooperation with Susan Worner Tours, join our tour guide, Caroline Holmes, well-known garden historian and past President of The British Herb Society along with fellow HSA members as we explore and further our knowledge of the origins of many herbs.

The traveling seminar will be a feast for your senses and your mind: learn first hand Italian culture through inspiring garden designs; smell the scents of Botticelli's Spring and Tuscan cooking pots; hear the babble of Italian street markets, burbling springs and splashing fountains; touch the cool stones and warm herbs; and experience delicious Tuscan and Florentine specialties.

Included: Hotel accommodations with breakfast, transportation throughout, entrance fees to all gardens, lunch or dinner (as specified in tour details) each day, local guides when needed.

Not included: Roundtrip airfare to Rome, drinks, meals (not included in tour details), personal laundry, tips, telephone calls, travel & medical insurance are not included.

Cost: 2970 euros (approx. $3,662.00 US Dollars) per person based upon double occupancy; Supplement for single occupancy of double room 420 euros (approx. $518.00 US Dollars)

Make your plans today as space is limited to a maximum of 20 participants.
