

2010 Promising Plant

Pelargonium 'Cy's Sunburst'

Promising Characteristics

- ◆ Variegated gold/green ruffled leaves combined with a lemon fragrance and pink flowers

This lovely plant was developed by Cyrus Hyde of Well Sweep Herb Farm in Port Murray, New Jersey. It was a chance sport* found on Pelargonium crispum in 2003. It was introduced to the public in the Well Sweep catalog in 2007.

*A sport is a branch emanating from a plant that has either different shaped or colored, or both, leaves. It can only be propagated by cuttings

FAMILY

Geraniaceae

GENUS

Pelargonium

CULTIVAR

'Cy's Sunburst'

COMMON NAME

Scented Geranium

'Cy's Sunburst'

LEAVES

variegated gold/green;

lemon fragrance

FLOWER COLOR

pink

BLOOM PERIOD

intermittent

PLANT TYPE

tender perennial often grown as an annual;

frost tender

PROPAGATION

cuttings

USE

decorative, fragrant

HEIGHT/WIDTH

15"-20"/10"-12"

LIGHT

full sun

SOIL

for garden, well drained

garden loam;

for containers, well drained

sterile potting soil

WATER

average; care should be taken not to wet leaves

HABIT

upright

Where can I find this plant?

- ◆ Well Sweep Herb Farm
www.wellsweep.com

The Herb Society of America
9019 Kirtland Chardon Road
Kirtland, OH 44094
440.256.0514
www.herbsociety.org